

Resources for Powerful Activism

Palestine Solidarity Conference
Naarm, May 2024

The Commons Social Change Library gathers the collective wisdom of people engaged in social change and makes it available on one easy to use website.

On the following page the Commons librarians have listed some resources that we think you'll find particularly useful. Use this QR code to access all the resources or search for 'Palestine Solidarity Conference' on commonslibrary.org

These recommendations are only a small taste of the hundreds of helpful resources you'll find in the Commons Library. Explore the Commons to find articles, manuals, training materials, videos, podcasts and tips on a wide range of approaches to social change, and for different levels of experience and skills.

Another great place to start is New to Activism, Organising and Campaigning? Start Here which includes links to Start Here guides on Nonviolent Direct Action, Creative Activism, Working in Groups, Organising, Coalition Building, Fundraising and more.

Subscribe to our newsletter and follow the Commons on social media for updates. Contact the librarians if you have any questions or if you'd like to contribute a resource so others can learn from your experiences. We're stronger and smarter together!

THE COMMONS

Social Change Library

Four Roles in Palestine Solidarity Activism

Four different roles needed in movements to win: the citizen, rebel, change agent and reformer. This framework can help make sense of tensions and conflict within social movements.

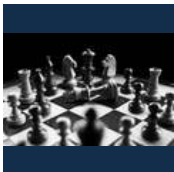

Board Members, We Need to Talk About Palestine

Helpful information for holding community organisations accountable for their position on the genocide in Gaza. Includes videos and letters by a governance expert.

The Tactic Star

A great tool for choosing, developing and evaluating campaign tactics. When it's time to get creative, put pressure on targets and win new allies - reach for this tool.

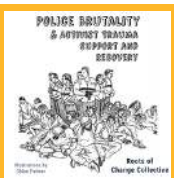

Campaign Strategy Planning Template

This campaign strategy planning template prompts you to apply a number of different campaign strategy, community organising, and civil resistance concepts and tools.

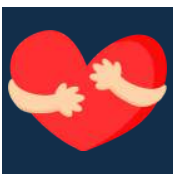

Backfire: Tactics Against Injustice

Learn how to make attacks on individuals and the movement backfire on the perpetrator. This model outlines the playbook of oppressors and the steps to regain the high ground: Reveal, Redeem, Reframe, Redirect and Resist.

Police Brutality and Activist Trauma Support

Learn how to support yourself and your comrades after police brutality and other traumatic experiences.

Balance or Burnout?

A nifty model for making sense of activist burnout so you can figure out how to find more balance.
